

Requirements for Amateur Radio Licence Application

- An amateur radio licence is required for person(s) operate an amateur radio station other than for the purpose of public telecommunication services, and broadcasting in the states of Grenada.
- Two (2) copies of the completed amateur radio application form should be submitted to the National Telecommunications Regulatory Commission accompanied by the appropriate application fee(s)
- Please indicate which, if any, information provided by the applicant in your application is confidential.
- If the applicant is a company or corporation it must be registered according to the companies' registration Act in Grenada.
- The applicant (if an individual) must also submit the following:
 1. Photo identification
 2. Passport size photo
 3. Applicable fee(s)
 4. Technical specification of each piece of radio equipment
 5. Copy of existing license from home country (for visitors)
 6. Testimonial from a recognized referee certifying the applicant's competence to operate/ maintain a radio station (for locals with no previous license)
- If the applicant is a company or corporation the following must also be submitted:
 1. Certificate of incorporation/ registration
 2. Completed Class license application form
 3. Technical specification of each piece of radio equipment